

Overview of Markets Near Villa Le Grand Bleu

Boulogne-sur-Mer Fish Market: Enjoy Seasonal Seafood

This iconic market combines tradition, friendliness, and quality. Every day, fresh seafood is brought directly from the harbor: fish, shellfish, and crustaceans.

Passionate and experienced fishmongers are happy to share their expertise and advice to help you choose the best products for your recipes. More than just a place to shop, the fish market is a true sensory and cultural experience at the heart of maritime tradition.

 Location: Quai Gambetta

 Opening hours: depend on boat arrivals, tides, and the day's catch.

Place Dalton Market – Boulogne-sur-Mer

Every Wednesday and Saturday morning, Place Dalton comes alive with the weekly market. Seasonal fruits and vegetables, cheeses, charcuterie, bread, flowers, clothing, and handicrafts... a lively atmosphere full of discovery and interaction for locals and visitors alike.

Covered Market – La Halle de Condette

In the heart of Condette, this wooden hall with traditional architecture hosts a vibrant covered market. Each week, you'll find fresh, local, and artisanal products for food lovers and curious visitors.

 Days: Wednesday morning – Friday afternoon – Sunday morning

Weekly Market – Wimereux

Discover local products and regional crafts twice a week.

- From September to June: Place Albert 1er (about 30 stalls) – 8:00 am to 12:30 pm
 - During the summer: Rue Wimet (double the space, triple the number of vendors) – 7:30 am to 1:30 pm
-

Evening Markets – Wimereux

In July and August, every Saturday from 5:00 pm to 10:00 pm, Quai Hazebrouck offers artisanal products, cheeses, vegetables, jams, pastries, and other sweet and savory treats. A perfect way to end a day at the beach with a leisurely culinary stroll.

Strolling Through the Market – Le Touquet-Paris-Plage

Under the high arches of the covered market, inaugurated in 1932, colorful and fragrant local products fill the stalls. Fresh fish and shellfish, juicy fruits, olives, dried fruits, cheeses, meats, and organic vegetables... a feast for the senses.

Open every Thursday and Saturday morning year-round, and Monday morning in summer, it's a must-visit spot for anyone wanting to explore local flavors.

 With this selection of markets, your stay at Villa Le Grand Bleu will be a full immersion in local culture, with tradition, fresh products, and authentic experiences.